For our season (May through Christmas Eve) Santa's Workshop hires personnel to fill the following positions:

***FOOD SERVICE

***CASHIERS

***RETAIL

***OUTDOOR PARK PERSONNEL

These positions help give experience in meeting the public, salesmanship and display/stock control of merchandise. Any experience in these areas should be noted on your application.

In that Saturdays and Sundays are our busiest days, most employees are required to work those days.

THIS GENERAL INFORMATION SHEET IS INTENDED AS A GUIDELINE ONLY. We reserve the right to have you perform other tasks as designated. All employees hired are considered to be Santa's helpers and appropriately dressed in costumes or uniforms which depict the various jobs which are an integral part of our village theme. There is a requirement to pose for photos taken by the visitors and for publicity purposes; therefore, a pleasing personality is a must.

Santa's Workshop does have a high standard of appearance for all employees. Our wardrobe policy sets forth in detail our wardrobe/appearance regulations. Please read this wardrobe policy before completing the application. Costumes are furnished by Santa's Workshop with the exception of shoes, shorts or pants.

Santa's Workshop does not provide living accommodations or transportation to and from work; however, transportation is not usually a problem as car pools are formed regularly from surrounding areas. Santa's Workshop does not arrange car pools. Arrangements for alternate transportation are needed should your driver have a different day off, illness, car problems, etc. A bicycle is not suitable transportation because of our location in the mountains. Transportation and living accommodations are the sole responsibility of the employee. Any correspondence regarding further information or inquiry should be directed to the Personnel Office, Santa's Workshop, 5050 Pikes Peak Highway, Cascade, Colorado 80809, (719) 684-9432.
